INFAMOUS ASSAULT ON LITTLE GIRL

PEACE REIGNS OVER TRIAL

Too great care of the child cannot be taken by the mother, and that a warning is amply justified is seen through the police records of this morning's court session, when a callous and brutal Japanese, Higashi, was charged with attempting to take away the honor of pretty little Lucy Morisita, daughter of a countryman of his own, and but nine years of age. The episode occurred in a bath house at Punchbowl and Queen streets and detective officers testified to seeing the whole proceedings.

What proof Charlie Chillingworth can lead in rebuttal remains to be seen tomorrow morning. He asked for a continuation of the case. Higashi is at liberty on $500 bail.

Four Fights And Three Knock-outs

There was plenty of boxing in town on Saturday night, and, besides the show at the Star, Joe Cohen pulled off a good exhibition at the Orpheum.

No less than four bouts were fought, and three knockouts ended the same number of scraps. The other contest was practically a knockout also, as McCollough had Coll in queer street when the latter's seconds threw up the sponge.

The excitement was intense all the evening, and the fair-sized crowd that attended went up in the air as knockout after knockout was landed.

Zagowski started the shambles dope by passing Hull out in the second round. Sarconi gave Marathon Jack his in the third round, and Pete Stanley biffed Fernandez to sleep in the first.

All the fights were willing enough, and the audience certainly got their money's worth of stoush.

RAY TO STAY

Major B. B. Ray, paymaster of the district of Hawaii, is not to leave Honolulu after all. The Major wishes to stay in Hawaii, as he likes the place and is quite content to remain here till the spring, anyhow. The Major and Mrs. Ray returned last night from Haleiwa, where they had been spending the day.

SERGT. SILVA MAKES CAMP PERRY TEAM

There was some fine shooting done at Fort Shafter on Saturday and Sunday by the N. G. H. team, which is to lead for Camp Perry next week to take part in the big shoot.

As announced in the Bulletin last week it was doubtful which of the two, Sergeant Silva or Sergeant Hubbard, would make the team, and these two shot off for the honor yesterday.

Silva made a total of 271 and Hubbard, who did not shoot as well as usual, could only accumulate 218. Sergeant Silva therefore is included in the team which goes to Camp Perry.

In the master's report in re the estate of Seteki Shigeysoshi, Administrator Tashiro charges himself with $974.35 and asks to be allowed $100.00.

ABE AND IDA GUESTS OF HONOR

K. Abe, who leaves on the Alameda next Wednesday for San Francisco, and Mr. Ida, who arrived recently from Japan, to become Japanese Eleve Consul here, were banqueted last night at the Mochizuki Club by the Japanese merchants.

The dining room was attractively decorated in honor of the guests. Consul General Uyeno was among the invited guests. D. Yonekura, President of the Japanese Merchants' Association, made an appropriate speech before the luncheon was investigated by those present. Other speeches were also made.

Abe, who has many friends here, will go to San Francisco to become the Japanese Eleve Consul there.

CORDELL-SULLIVAN TO MEET AGAIN

Although Jack Cordell is booked to leave for the Coast on the Alameda, there is a possibility of his remaining over to have another go at Dick Sullivan.

Cordell announced his intention of returning later on and boxing Sullivan forty-five rounds, winner take all. However, this morning Jack Scully was busy looking into the proposition of bringing the two men together once more in two weeks' time, and the probabilities are that the matter will be arranged this afternoon.

Cordell will insist on Sullivan making the proper weight, and is also anxious that the boxing be done under the "clean break" rule.

In order to study surf boat riding at close range Gordon Usborn, the sculptor, spent yesterday afternoon at Waikiki and made notes of the various poses of the riders for the purpose of using them in the clay models he intends making for the Promotion Committee.

He spoke in a low tone in answer to the court's questions and stated that he had nothing to say, but seemed a little staggered when the sentence was passed. The full meaning of the formal words hit him all in a lump, and he saw an instantaneous picture of convict's stripes and the lock step. When he tried to say something his lips moved, but he could not summon up enough breath to form the words. When he left the court room his step was less jaunty and his shoulders less squared.

Cupid's credentials will be looked into better next time.

Upon the completion of his term in prison Baker will be requested to visit Chicago and look into a little matter connected with him concerning alleged forgery, and it is probable that he will pass from one penitentiary to another if convicted on this latter charge.
